

Video. "The Amazon Synod is making visible those who were invisible in society"

The next big event for bishops, from across the world, in Rome is the Synod for the Amazon. It is a meeting which will discuss about this region of the planet as well as letting its voice be heard.